OFFICE OF THE EXECUTIVE SECRETARY

Mr. Howland Wood,
80 Franklin Place,
Flushing, N. Y.

My dear Mr. Wood:

Georgetown College is now in its one hundredth session under the present charter and will celebrate its centennial in June, 1929.

In recognition of its long and honorable service in the field of education we are wondering if you would like to have a part in our centennial year by contributing one or more of your books to the "American Authors" Division of our library.

If it is not asking too much, we would greatly appreciate it if you would make such a contribution and, if possible, autograph the copy or copies sent. We feel that this would make your contribution of more value and of more interest.

May we take this opportunity to thank you for anything you may be able to do?

Very sincerely,

James Moreland
